Scott Family in Kosova – Rob, Heidi, Eliana, and Malia

- Praise God for family visiting us from the US, and some time away for our family.
- Pray for our motivation in language learning. Pray specifically for our speaking to “catch up” to our comprehension.
- Pray for relationships with local people, that we can be an encouragement to the small number of believers here, and boldly shine the light of Jesus to our Muslim neighbors and friends.
- Pray for genuine, healthy friendships for Eliana and Malia as they enter high school (Eliana) and middle school (Malia).
- Pray for the people of Kosovo as they are facing significant inflammation, with some families spending 50% of their income on food. Pray that somehow through this hardship that God reveals himself to people in a big way and opens hearts to the gospel.

Schaeffer Family in Japan – Don, Rach, Donald, Elliot, & Samuel

- Pray for Donald, who attends a Japanese school, and Elliot and Samuel, who are at home, to have daily strength and encouragement.
- Pray for Ishi-san, whom Don gave a Bible to last Fall. After not having any contact with him for many months, God brought him back into our lives. Recently, he asked me, Don, if I would like to read a publication he gets from a Christian company! After agreeing, I asked him if he would like to read my sermon notes I use at church. He also agreed. Pray that God would continue to reveal Himself to Ishi-san
- Continue to pray for Kaori-san and her husband, Naoyuki-san, who bought the Kid's Bible
- Pray for us to walk closely with the Lord Jesus each day, and to be encouraged by His Word and His Holy Spirit.

Strand Family in Sarajevo – Michael, Lia, Lydia, and Benjamin

- Continued health, even in the midst of several friends and contacts testing COVID positive
- For growing connections with people, both non-believers and with believers in neighboring countries.
- That Lia's EM teaching would continue to result in improved cognitive function for her students, and open paths for Gospel conversions.

- For planning starting for this autumn's business seminar, that we would increase the breadth of contacts for the Gospel.
- For fall planning for ministry center programming, and team wisdom for how we engage to see the Gospel proclaimed in Bosnia-Herzegovina.
- For the local protestant churches. All are small and declining over the past many years. Pray for repentance, sacrificial living, focus only on Jesus, and a move of the Spirit.

Novy Family in Guinea – Travis and Becca

- Please pray for our children as they start school again this month. The girls are both enrolled in a new online program and we would appreciate prayer for a smooth transition and good internet connection.
- We are welcoming our very first team at the beginning of September. Pastor Mark Byrom from Alliance-Appleton is coming out with a couple of other people to help our team with Master Planning and how to team well. Please pray for the Holy Spirit to guide our team and give us wisdom on the direction to go with our ministry here in Dubreka, Guinea. Pray that it will be fruitful not only for us, but for the men who are visiting as well.
- Lastly, we just welcomed back our team members Stephen and Lori Albright from home assignment. Also our newest team members Timothy and Jessica Chapman just arrived to the field from language school in France. Pray for our team as we are all just getting to know each other. Pray for strong relationships to be formed and for good communication.

Stemple Family in Germany – Sam and Jen

- Katie enters her Senior Year at BFA, so even though it is early, would you pray for direction and clarity for her as she begins to think towards life beyond Germany. Pray also for Jen and I as this year ahead is a year of processing what God has for us down the road. We are scheduled for an HMA 2023-24 but what we do beyond that time is still unclear to us. Pray that God would begin to show us His plan as we walk into this new school year ahead. Thanks for praying ... Continue to Pray!!
